

Dr. Amit serves as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce at Dyal Singh Evening College. He has finished his undergraduate studies and M. Com from the University of Delhi. Upon obtaining his MBA, he acquired a PhD in Relevance of social media in healthcare services. He has actively engaged in several international and national conferences and published research papers in Scopus/ABDC/UGC CARE listed journals. He has received several awards, such as Dr. Radhakrishnan Memorial Award, Best Publication award for his innovative thinking and social contributions. Dr. Amit has completed six projects pertaining to Digital India, technology, and social welfare, funded by the National Trust (Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, GOI) ICSSR, IIM-C, University of Delhi, among others.