

Dr. Rashi Thareja- Brief Profile

Dr. Rashi Thareja has done her Ph.D. in the field of “Women Entrepreneurship” from the University of Delhi. She is an alumnus of the University of Delhi and a lifetime member of Indian Commerce Association (ICA). Dr. Rashi has completed her postgraduation with a specialization in the subjects of Finance and Organisational Behaviour. She also carries to her credit at both graduation and post-graduation levels merit scholarships instituted by the college during her student career.

She has teaching experience of more than a decade and is presently placed at Dyal Singh Evening College as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce. Dr. Rashi has been a member of the project “Financial Inclusion: Perspectives and Recent Initiatives, A Study by Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi” under the Ministry of Education, the government of India: “Creating Intellectual Heritage Project”

She has also authored various research articles for reputed journals and has authored chapters in edited books. Dr. Rashi has presented her research papers and bagged best paper awards in national and international seminars and conferences. Her areas of research interest include Entrepreneurship, Women Empowerment, Personality Traits, Sustainable Business Practices and Digital Entrepreneurship. She has actively participated in FDPs, workshops, seminars conferences, and paper presentations at the national and International Levels. She has been a member of the E-Pathshala Project sponsored by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India.