

Anurag Sharma

Department of Commerce
Dyal Singh Evening College
University of Delhi

Profile

Email: anurags_com@dsce.du.ac.in

Contact No.: +91 9990 199 366

Mr. Anurag Sharma has been working at Dyal Singh Evening College as an Assistant Professor for more than 8 years, in the Department of Commerce. A graduate from the prestigious Zakir Hussain College, University of Delhi in B.Com(Hons.), Anurag is also a Chartered Accountant and a Company Secretary, along with an LLB degree to his credit.

As an academician, Anurag has written research papers in various journals of national and international reputation. Some among them are, Challenges of IFRS Implementation in India, E-Marketing: Emerging tactics of Marketing in India, Banking in India, GST-Journey so far. He also held many visits for the students with SEBI, and conducted various workshops for them in and outside the college.

As a budding professional, Anurag started his career as a consultant with one of the biggest consulting firm in the world, Deloitte.

He conducted regular lectures and sessions on numerous topics ranging from Corporate Laws to Income Tax and many others, dealing with the length and breadth of these varied subjects. He also has a strong experience in audit, tax, and advisory in the field of Corporate Laws, Trusts and NPO's. He has done various statutory and tax audits for many PSU's which includes among others, Power grid, BHEL, MTNL, BSNL, Indian Ports Association before joining University of Delhi as an Assistant Professor.

Apart from holding the membership of ICAI and ICSI, he is also a lifetime member of Indian Commerce Association.

Anurag has been a speaker at numerous forums and workshops on Finance, Corporate Governance, NPO's, Social Entrepreneurship, Transparency, integrity and accountability in Financial reporting and various other topics.